Seminar Instructor - Marc S. Farmer, MAI, CCIM

Dallas, Texas

About the Instructor

Marc Farmer has been a commercial real estate appraiser for the past twenty-three years. He has a degree in Finance with an emphasis in Real Estate from Texas Tech University. He holds both the MAI and CCIM designations, a Texas General Certification, and a Texas Broker's License. Additionally, he is an approved Appraisal Institute Instructor. Currently, Marc is employed as a Vice President, Assistant Chief Appraiser with Comerica Bank in Dallas. Current responsibilities include the ordering and review of all types of commercial appraisals throughout Texas and the Southeastern United States.

Seminar Overview

Forecasting Revenue is a practical, hands-on seminar that provides critical insights about how to forecast rent levels, vacancy, and additional sources of revenue on all income producing types of properties (commercial and residential).

Real estate owners, analysts, brokers, lenders, and appraisers will find this seminar useful.

The seminar covers key issues related to analyzing rent rolls and forecasting rent on vacant space.

Case studies and discussion topics provide real-world examples of problems that participants might face.
